Application dated 23rd August 1909 from Mr. R.Ranga Rao B.A., B.L., First Grade Clerk, General and Revenue Secretariat for a scholarship of £500/- to enable him to go to Europe for a course of study in Economics with special reference to the development of Co-operative Credit.

- - - - - - - - - - - - -

I am a son of Mr. R. Raghavendra Rao, Retired Amildar, and am about 28 years of age.

I am a graduate of the Madras University in Arts and in Law. I passed the B.A. Degree Examination with History as my optional subject, taking a first class in the English Language division and also obtaining the University Gold Medal for standing first in Political Economy. I beg to add that I have been keeping myself in touch with the subject of Political Economy. I enclose copies of testimonials.

The course of preparation and training which I propose for myself is, subject to the approval of Government, as follows:-

(1) To undergo the course for Indian Students at the London School of Economics and Political Science in order to obtain the requisite theoretical training in Economics, Business organization, Currency, Banking, Statistics and Accounting. A copy of the syllabus of the course is enclosed for ready reference. As will be seen therefrom, the course lasts for a period of nine months from October 1909 to June 1910.

(2) To study the special literature on the subject of Co-operative Credit and to obtain a practical knowledge of the work of some of the best known forms of co-operation such as the Schultz-Delitsch and Raiffeisen banks in Germany, Co-operative Agriculture in Denmark, Luzatti Banks in N-Italy and the Peasants' Co-operative Credit Banks in parts of Russia. This will require a period of about 10 months from July 1910 to March 1911.

(3) To complete the course by a study of Indian conditions and requirements by a visit to the principal centres of Co-operative activity in India. This may be done in about 4 months after returning from Europe.

The course in Europe lasts for a period of about 19 months and costs about £500/- as follows:-

(1).For a stay of 9 months in London.	£.150.
(2) For stay and travelling in Germany, Denmark,N-Italy &c for a period of 10 months. - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -	£.175.
(3) For Books, Reports (French & German)&c.,	£. 50.
(4) For clothes. - - - - - - - - - - - - - - -	£. 30.
(5) For equipment before starting - - - - - -	£. 25.
(6) For voyage to and from Europe. - - - - - -	£. 70.
Total	£.500.

(Exclusive of voyage and travelling expenses, this comes to about £ 225 per year.)

I humbly pray that the Government may be pleased to grant me this amount and enable me to qualify myself for work connected with Co-operative Credit in the State.
